LESSONS LEARNED FROM A LIFE WELL LIVED – PART 1

With Father’s Day approaching this Sunday, I can’t help but reflect on my own father, Lamar Duke, who went to heaven this past February. Over the next few weeks, I’d like to share with you three habits he exhibited that I strive to demonstrate in my life.

My father and my family weren’t perfect by any means, but I am so blessed and privileged to have grown up in a godly family that was centered on Jesus Christ.

Dad and I had nearly 42 years on earth together (with eternity to come) and I got to know him in many roles... father, brother, teacher, coach, mentor, co-worker, and more.

Dad’s favorite Bible verse was:

“For I am confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Christ Jesus” – Philippians 1:6 (NASB)

The idea of this verse – that God isn’t done with any of us yet – informed my Dad’s life and allowed the Lord to shape and grow him for all of his 69 years. I wanted to take an opportunity over the next three weeks to share three habits that God developed in my father and have influenced and inspired me:

Habit #1:

My Father Loved Unconditionally

I never once observed my father change the way he treated people, regardless of race, background, socio-economic status, or any other distinction. Whether you were a successful business owner, a blue collar worker, someone who was homeless, or something in between, Dad showed genuine concern, care, and love for everyone he encountered.

To know my father was to be loved by him. And to be loved by Dad was to feel like you were the only person in the world that he wanted to be with at that moment. As this world continued to get busier and more distraction-filled, his ability to live and love in the moment shined even more!

Whenever I messed up, made mistakes, or did things that I knew I shouldn’t have, I always knew it wouldn’t change the way Dad loved me or looked at me.

The unconditional, “Agape” love that I experienced from my father originates from our Spiritual Father, and He is the only one (through the Holy Spirit) who can enable us to love others that way.

“We love, because He first loved us. If someone says, ‘I love God,’ and hates his brother, he is a liar; for the one who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen.” - 1 John 4:19-20 (NASB)

Thankful for our Heavenly Father,

Tommy

P.S. Don’t miss this Sunday, June 21 at 11:00am, either on FBCGC.live or in-person, for Father’s Day at FBC Garden City.

We will look at what the Bible teaches us about how to experience God’s breakthrough in your family!
