REBUILDING...

I have gotten a kick out of the many internet “memes” floating around lately about 2020. Here’s one of my recent favorites:

No matter how many ways this unusual year has affected you, one thing I know is that God is love and He loves you right where you are right now. Beyond that, we know that “Love never gives up, never loses faith, is always hopeful, and endures through every circumstance” (1 Corinthians 13:7 – NLT).

To that end, I want to encourage you that regardless of what may be broken down, damaged, or destroyed in your life, God is in the business of rebuilding.

In fact, God’s mode of operation is full of re- words... He redeems our lives, restores us into a right relationship with Him, reclaims His children, restarts us with a new life in Christ, and recreates us as a new creation. He is standing at the ready to be the general contractor on whatever kind of rebuild you need today.

Over the next eight weeks – starting this Sunday, September 6 – we will be looking at one of the most heralded rebuilding jobs in recorded history, the book of Nehemiah. The series is called “REBUILD: Lessons from the Book of Nehemiah.”

I hope you’ll join us in-person for the start of this new series. That said, I realize this is Labor Day Weekend and if you can’t be here, please tune in online at FBCGC.live – you don’t want to miss this exciting storyline (and how it applies to your life). Spoiler alert: God used Nehemiah and the people of Jerusalem to rebuild the broken-down walls around the city in less than two months.

We will dig into the still-relevant principles of a rebuild project, examining how they can help you rebuild your career, your health, your family, or even your life. Beyond that, we’ll see clearly how God wants to use these same concepts to rebuild our church stronger and healthier than ever!

Rebuilding together,

P.S. This Sunday, September 6, don’t miss the kickoff of our brand-new series, REBUILD: Lessons from the Book of Nehemiah. It’s at 11:00am and you can join us in-person or at FBCGC.live. See you there!
