WHERE IS 'YOUR' GOD?

In the business of summer God always slows me down and reminds me of many things and reminds me of who He is. The past two weeks I have seen a theme but first let me remind us all of a familiar scripture passage from 1 Kings 19:11-13:

11 So He said, "Go forth and stand on the mountain before the Lord." And behold, the Lord was passing by! And a great and strong wind was rending the mountains and breaking in pieces the rocks before the Lord; but the Lord was not in the wind. And after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake. 12 After the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire, and after the fire a sound of a gentle blowing. 13 When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood in the entrance of the cave. And behold, a voice came to him and said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

So many times, we expect God to show up in a big and mighty way, after all He is God. We expect Him to handle the big stuff because He is the only one that can handle it. While this is all true, we sometimes get in the habit of only taking the big stuff to Him. The small stuff we could do for ourselves so why bother God. Ever been there? God constantly reminds me He is in the small stuff just as much as He is in the big stuff. It also brings Him just as much glory and praise.

We are getting ready to take the youth to World Changers and I have seen God work so mightily in the small stuff all these years we have been participating. For our teens and even the adults, we are taken out of our comfort zone, and we have to learn to rely on someone besides ourselves. We learn we can trust other believers and we can even trust God in all circumstances. One year I was preparing for the trip just like I am today and I realized I needed some box knives for my project. That exact moment one of our church members walked in with a bag of box knives that he didn't need and wondered if we needed them. I didn't even get the chance to pray. Another year I had a crew on the roof and no one had any experience, so we were starting from scratch. One of the girls was willing to learn and trust what we were showing her, she became my right hand so I could work with the others. She even was giving orders to some professionals that came by to assist with an issue we were having. God always provides but not always the way we expect. We have to trust God with everything and allow Him to be God. Where does God want to show up in your life today? And probably the bigger question, are you willing to let Him be God?

Randall

Randall and our youth group will be leaving this Friday, June 24th travelling to Gallup, New Mexico. They will be partnering with the local churches to repair homes of families for which the churches have already established a relationship. They will be working on the Navajo Reservation. Pray for their travels, flights, and protection as they make their way to destinations. Pray for God to work in a mighty way during this mission trip.
